WILL SAYS VICTOR IN MARATHON WON BY SHUNNING FORD

(Special To The News)
LONDON, April 20. When Mr. Hoover appoints some judge or some prominent position, he sends out the names of the fellows who wanted him appointed. That's to stop these politicians from autographing every application that comes along.

Some of them were so prominent with their endorsement that they must have been working on a commission. Now a lot of them are kicking on this new plan. But for every politician he loses he will gain two more friends.

The biggest marathon race we have in this country finished here today, and an old boy from Canada won it, because he never owned a Ford and didn't know how to run one. Outsiders won everything. We ride good, but we get out of wind walking to the garage.

Yours,
WILL.

PA NEW OBSERVES

The Y. M. C. A. surely should have a good year. The membership drive nearly doubled the goal set before the drive and money received will do a lot of work for the year. Pa. New thinks that it is the largest membership that the Y ever has had in its history.

The boys at the Y deserve a word of commendation. They turned the trick and brought in the members that were originally set for the directors. It was the boys' teams that brought in the most members, most money and, needless to say, most enthusiasm.

Another chicken story—woman going up street carrying a little box from which peeping sounds were heard. Evidently she was carrying two or three little chicks in the box and they were certainly making a racket.

Another not unusual thing during the past few days has been to see some good member of the citizenry going home with a sack of coal in the back seat of his car and some others even had additional loads installed in the home cellar.

Man told Pa. New yesterday that building a house was a war in itself. His house is already completed and the poor man is nearly dead arguing with carpenters, plasterers, plumbers, decorators, painters and a score of others, including his wife.

Apparently baseball is here to stay—it having been on the other side of the coin. In this county there is evidence of much baseball. There are city teams, county teams and city-county teams so we should have plenty of baseball for the fans.

Thomas J. Jones, "Tommy" Jones, well known traffic officer of this city was a boxer during his 21st year with Jimmie Dime of this city.

Tommy stayed with the fight game until he was 24 and then joined the city police force here. Since that time he has served without lapse on the police force here and is the Mill and Washington street overseer now.

Though he relinquished his hold on boxing quite a number of years ago he is still an ardent fight fan.

He is married and resides on Mills Way.

Tornado Strikes Towns In Texas

Infant Baby Killed Instantly; Terrific Wind Does Considerable Damage

THREE TOWNS ARE PARTIALLY WRECKED

(International News Service)
FORT WORTH, Tex., April 20.—Reconstruction work was launched in three Texas towns today as the result of tornadoes that hit in the northern part of the state.

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. McGee was instantly killed when their home was demolished by a cyclone that struck in the sand dune community near Cleburne. The father, who was holding the baby, had his arm broken by a piece of falling lumber.

Another gust of wind lifted the house from its foundation, and the couple, holding to their dead child, were left unprotected in the storm. The mother received a cut on the head.

A tornado that dipped suddenly into Bowie, unroofed a number of houses, twisted others from their foundations, and did considerable property damage. The storm lasted but a few minutes.

Part of the warehouse of the Texas and Pacific Railway at Paris, a brick structure, was tipped away by a tornado that hit Paris. Several houses were blown down and nearly every green light in the city was smashed.

Chicago Sanitary District Board Scored For $6,900 Damage To Hotel Room

Considerable Fun Took Place; Charge Board With Graft And Irregularities

(International News Service)
CHICAGO, April 20.—Investigation of alleged graft and irregularities within the Chicago sanitary district board was renewed with fresh vigor today following revelations of an alleged “whoopie” party in New York that came near wrecking the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel.

The sanitary board had to pay the hotel $6,900 for damage done in one night by its lively delegation, according to testimony introduced at the hearing.

Arthur Mathiesen, “personal secretary” to Timothy J. Crowe, former president of the sanitary district, detailed the sensational account of the eastern “whoopie” excursion after he was promised immunity from prosecution.

It seems that in 1927, after the disastrous flood along the Mississippi river, the sanitary district trustees resolved to lend a helping hand.

Liquor Flows Freely

A train was chartered. A club car was backed onto a Pennsylvania siding at Roosevelt road, where, according to Mathiesen, it was stocked with choice liquors—whisky, champagne, gin and beer.

The train proceeded to Washington, according to the witness, with corks popping and a jolly crowd aboard.

David Steinhardt Falls Dead At Government Agents Feet; Poison Victim

(International News Service)
PHILADELPHIA, April 20.—Investigations that David Steinhardt, 42-year-old fugitive New York bankruptcy attorney, was “induced to commit suicide” by friends, were disclosed today as U. S. investigators prepared to delve into the mystery surrounding the lawyer's death in a local hotel. Assistant U. S. District Attorney George J. Mintzer declared all clues that would lead to the identity of these “friends” of the dead man will be followed.

“Friends” feared they might become involved in the New York bankruptcy scandal by the revelations that Steinhardt, the “key witness,” might divulge, Mintzer hinted.

“There were others as much or more interested in Steinhardt than the government,” Mintzer said. “They did not want him to tell his story to

Snappy Program For Dinner Club

Consistory Dinner Club At Cathedral Well Entertained Friday

NEARLY THOUSAND ATTEND EVENT

Breaking out of the usual form of post-prandial entertainment, the program for the Consistory dinner held Friday evening in the Cathedral saw the “Footlight Revue” presented under the direction of that maestro of entertainment, Dr. H. E. Zerner.

Usually the program is presented in the dining room following the service of the meal. Friday evening the doctor ushered the nine hundred or more guests present up to the auditorium and there gave them a program that smacked of light opera, musical comedy and high grade concert.

Opens With a Smash

Following the custom of the theatre, Doctor Zerner who was Master of Ceremonies for the evening opened his show with a “smash” the smash being the Legion of Honor Bugle and Drum Corps. Clad in creamy white uniforms, bugles blaring and drums crashing out the corps marched onto the stage playing that good old army classic, “You're in the Army Now.”

Following a demonstration of the corps the program showed the following. Lawrence Thompson who sang a number of selections made popular by Reinold Werrenrath; Al Evans and Sonny Boy Elliott, who did a Johnson skit, featuring the song “Sonny Boy”; Miss Mable Elger and Roy Cleland who brought a touch of old Seville in a Spanish number.

Gray-Haired Philanderer Friendless As He Awaits Justice For His Crimes

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, April 20.—Life imprisonment and not the electric chair for Henry Close, alias Colin Campbell, confessed Jersey torch slayer, now held in the Union county jail, Elizabeth, N. J., loomed as possibility today when it became known his attorney, Francis Gordon, proposes asking that his client be allowed to enter a plea of guilty on a second-degree murder charge.

Meanwhile, relatives of Campbell in New York were indignantly refusing to aid the slayer.

Hundred Thousand Women Wants Locks Shorn By Own Sex

Women Petition Legislature To Have Hair Cut By Women “Barbers”

Barbers And Hairdressers In Chicago Are In Uproar Over Situation

By ROY J. GIBBONS
Central Press Staff Writer
CHICAGO, April 20.—One hundred thousand Chicago women will petition the general assembly of Illinois to amend the law so that they may have their locks shorn by women hairdressers instead of men barbers.

If there are any doubts about the true modesty of modern women, let this action speak finally for them.

Local barbering and hairdressing circles are in an uproar that threatens to bring on a hair-pulling match unequalled in the history of wind-blown bobs and boyish shingles.

Attorney General Rules

On one side are the master barbers, who demand that the state law, which says that not a hair on the human head may be cut by any but a licensed barber, be upheld rigidly by the authorities. Therefore, beauty shop operators with apprentice barber licenses have been permitted to bob hair but a recent ruling of Attorney General Oscar Carlsom, the legislation that permitted this has been declared null and void.

Women, unless they are lady barbers, may not bob, according to the present status of affairs. The political version of the master barbers is:

“It takes a man to handle shears. Or regulate the view of cars. No woman would be asked to clip the brush from off man's upper lip.”

There is more to the effect that beauticians, therefore, shouldn't take over the job of bobbing, but it isn't important.

The battle cry of the beauty operators, all of whom are members of various hairdressing and beauty schools, is diametrically opposed to this thought:

“Haircut, shave, singe, shampoo. We're the girls of Beauty U. Licenses and snatching laws. Only make us show our claws! Raw! Raw! Raw!”

But the hairdressers, faced with a large diminution in their incomes as a result of the ruling, have gone farther than composing campaign yells. Columbus D. Behan, of the Chicago and Illinois Hairdressers' association, sent out petitions to determine the extent of womanly modesty.

How many women would refuse to go into a barber shop, he wanted to know, if they could have their hair trimmed in a curling beauty shop? He sent out petitions to Chicago women to find out.

“We, the undersigned, all citizens of Illinois, do hereby request the general assembly to amend the present law,” (Continued On Page Two)

Labor Federation To Fight For Repeal Of New Mansfield Bill

President Green, Says Labor Federation Will Take Active Part In Repeal Efforts

Wave Of Indignation As Governor Fisher Unexpectedly Signs Coal Police Bill

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, April 20.—Contrary to the Mansfield industrial police bill signed yesterday by Gov. John S. Fisher flared anew today with a statement from William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor, that the federation will take an active part in the issue.

A hurried meeting of the executive committee of the American Civil Liberties Union here was followed by a protest meeting of the organization at Philadelphia. While administration leaders insisted that the Mansfield measure was a decided improvement over the old coal and iron police system, P. T. Fagan, district president of the United Mine Workers of America, charged that the bill gave the private police more power than ever.

Work For Repeal

Advised by Fagan that the bill had been signed, Green said that the federation will protest its enactment and will work for its repeal. If Fagan's claim that the bill confers broader power to the industrial police is true, “in view of the widespread public demand, both in Pennsylvania and out of the state, that the coal and iron police law be repealed, it is difficult to see how it can be repealed,” (Continued On Page Two)

Building Loop Line In Park

Traffic Congestion At Cascade Park To Be Alleviated

WILL BE READY AS SEASON OPENS

Construction of a track “loop” inside Cascade Park was commenced today by the Pennsylvania-Otto Electric Company and this summer it is anticipated that it will not only result in the alleviation of traffic at Rose Avenue and points east in Washington street but also be a measure that will result in greater safety to operation of cars and autos.

When East Washington street, east of the city line was paved the Pennsylvania-Otto track, which travelled to the lower park gate, was removed and constructed inside the confines of Cascade Park.

Today workmen commenced constructing a loop which will be built between the Thunderbug and Rainbow Terrace. A passenger station will also be erected.

The work was advocated by C. C. Coulthard, superintendent of traffic and Carl Shanon, manager of the park.

Signal Service

Heretofore street cars have had to “park” at Rose Avenue to await the return cars which had “outreached” the lower park gate. In the future not more than a two minute wait will occur.

A signal device will be maintained at the turn into the park. It will control the traffic between that point and Rose Avenue.

As soon as cars get into the park and clear the light, other cars can proceed east to the park.

This will obviate the delay which has occurred at Rose Avenue according to the street car officials.

When east and west cars were stopped at Rose Avenue a congestion of automobiles occurred often.

As the cars will be kept moving this congestion will be a thing of the past, considerable extent, the officials believe.

Arthur Mometer

The crockets are stirring and I see the ducks a whirling as they pass me in their way up north in flocks that cloud the sky, but I have a guess suspicion that this thing called prohibition has not yet affected April. It's anything but dry. Underneath the grass is growing and the farmer keeps a-sowing, that is sure wherever he can run a seed in the mud, and so for this spring is so, all the roads and lanes are boggy, and to give you my opinion I would say it's a dud. But the month is May, the middle, and this April weather middle soon will bring us into brighter skies that mark the month of May, so there ain't no use a-prod'ing at the weather keep on sowing, for it ain't no long till May is here it's not-a-moment today.

Hold Trio For Fatal Shooting At North East

Pennsylvania State Highway Patrolman Shot Down Along Highway

R. T. SWANSON, 24, OFFICER VICTIM

Believe Shooting Done By Minneapolis Auto Thieves—All Captured

(International News Service)
ERIE, Pa., April 20.—Three alleged Minneapolis automobile thieves are in the Erie county jail here today charged with first degree murder. Police say they attempted to evade arrest at North East, Pa., near here, yesterday afternoon by killing state highway policeman Russell T. Swanson, 24, after he had stopped their car and ordered them to a garage to have the tanks repaired.

The men gave their names as Samuel Bard, 25, Frederick Hunsicker, 42, and Joseph Invey, 40.

Bard has confessed to firing the fatal shot, according to police, but the murder charge has been lodged against all three. Bard declared that he “lost his head” and that he had fired at the officer only with the intent of “scaring him away.”

Suicide Attempted

Hunsicker attempted to commit suicide shortly after the slaying. He sent a bullet through his mouth, but was not seriously wounded. Hunsicker had jumped from the car as soon as the shooting occurred.

Policeman Swanson was one of a detachment of state highway police working on the Transcontinental Highway near North East, checking brakes, drivers' cards and license plates. When the car which bore the three men was stopped, Bard had come's cards or drivers' licenses, and the trucks had shown some defects on a full, where the police were working.

Killed Instantly

Swanson was detailed to take the car into North East, a short distance away. He was riding alongside the big machine when one of the occupants reached out the window and fired point blank at him. The bullet entered Swanson's head, killing him almost instantly.

Hunsicker jumped from the car and is a North East policeman came upon him, shot himself through the mouth. Bard and Invey, the latter the driver, sped away.

They abandoned the car near the railroad yards and tried to board a westbound freight. They failed and were soon captured by police. A quantity of ammunition and several revolvers were found in the stolen automobile, according to police.

The post voted to be more severe in their requirements in the future. Only those ex-service men who can provide proper credentials will receive aid hereafter.

A letter was received from the Federation of Women's Clubs, thanking the post for their aid in contributing to the fund for the purchase of a flag for the new George Washington Junior High school.

LABOR FEDERATION TO FIGHT FOR REPEAL OF NEW MANSFIELD BILL

cult to understand why the legislature of Pennsylvania would pass a bill conferring broader and greater powers upon privately employed coal and iron police, and why the governor would approve such a law? Green said:

"Demand for the repeal of the Pennsylvania coal and iron police law grew out of the murders and assaults inflicted by members of the coal and iron police upon defenseless citizens. Assuming that the information we have received is true, that the new coal and iron police bill confers upon private police boards power, the American Federation of Labor and its affiliated unions shall protest the enactment of this law and lead in a campaign for its repeal."

The labor factions and Civil Liberties Union had supported the Musmanno bill, which with the Mansfield measure, passed the recent legislature. It was left to the governor to approve the one he chose.

Musmanno Bill Best.

The principal difference in the two measures lies in the scope of power of the police. While the Musmanno bill would have confined them to the property of their employers, the Mansfield bill makes no such restriction.

The principal change from the old system in the Mansfield measure is the specification that the system now comes directly under the governor's supervision.

The Musmanno measure went further and provided that the private police must take their prisoners before magistrates for commitment; that the industrial police may not be a holder of public office and made citizenship compulsory.

Officials Hunt For Victim Of Machine Crash

Believe Second Person Killed In Train And Auto Crash Near West Etna

PITTSBURGH, April 20.—Possibility that a second person met death in the auto accident in West Etna early yesterday morning which caused the life of a man and injured a woman, exists today it became known here with the finding of a hat, coat, and driver's license in the debris of the wrecked car.

The victim of the crash, which occurred when an automobile crashed into a locomotive of a Baltimore and Ohio train, was James (Kid) Easone, former pugilist.

The driver's license found in the wreckage belonged to Edward Starr, 25. A brother of Starr identified the hat and coat. The body was not found and Pine Creek, which is a few feet from the railroad tracks has been dragged for it.

Mrs. Viola Wolman, 27, was the other occupant of the car. She suffered a fracture of the arm and shock.

The theory on which police appear to be operating, was that Starr was hurled into Pine Creek and possibly swept into the nearby Allegheny river. Barones body was found 50 feet from the crossing. Mrs. Wolman's unconscious form was located 150 feet away. The car was dragged 600 feet.

storage and dry pan rooms, constructed of brick and steel. All individual motor driven machines have been installed in the new plant making it one of the most up to date and efficient brick plants in the country.

Since the former plant was ravaged by flames last November, practically all of the workmen formerly employed at the works have been kept employed in the reconstruction.

It was the aim of the company to get at least one unit of the plant manufacturing at the earliest possible time. One unit of the plant is now constructed and, according to Superintendent Wallis, the second unit will have been completely finished within three weeks and the plant will be operating at capacity.

COUNTY-STATE AGREE ON ROADS TO BE IMPROVED

road, and the $325,000 which will be allocated from the appropriation provided for in the Wheeler bill.

In addition to these roads, two and a half or three miles will be built from Elliott's Mills on the Slippery Rock road through the village of Plaingrove. This road will be built out of state aid money of which the state will pay half and the county one-half. The entire road program means about 15 miles of concrete for Lawrence county with the county paying for about one and one-half miles. The rest comes from the state.

The only part of Lawrence county that does not receive a piece of improved road under the present arrangement is that portion between Edenburg and the Ohio line, which is a part of the Benjamin Franklin highway. The reason this was not included in the program is that it is the policy of the present administration to build the Benjamin Franklin highway out of the highway budget instead of by specific appropriation.

This means that the state will build this stretch and in addition will build a new bridge that will take the place of the present old covered bridge at Edenburg. Just when this will be done is not specifically stated. Another piece of road that will be built in Lawrence county, but for which no time is set, is the Perry highway. This also will be built by the state. Construction on the formal program, set out at the beginning of this article, will be started this summer.

In previous years roads have been improved or less political agencies. Counties with large influence and members who had served a long time in the general assembly usually got a lot, with the smaller counties and counties with new members suffering.

It was Governor John S. Fisher's idea that some efficient means of allocation of funds should be worked out, which would guarantee a square deal to the small counties. With this idea in mind, a definite road program of nine bills was worked out, and with them an additional cent tax on gasoline which would be on for one year.

This additional cent in Lawrence county will cost approximately $86,426 for the year it is on. The return from the road program, which was presented upon the additional cent, will mean nearly one half million dollars. For the reason that it seemed like good business to take advantage of a five to one return, the entire Lawrence county delegation supported the road program and the additional cent tax for one year; it is stated by the members.

Commissioners Outline Program.

When it seemed likely that the road program would go through, the county commissioners were asked to agree upon a road program which would seem equitable and fair to all parts of the county. This program was worked out and on Wednesday of this week Commissioners Thomas J. McCullough, P. O. Elder and Calvin C. Boyd went to Harrisburg.

The program had been previously presented to Governor John S. Fisher and he concurred in it. On Wednesday afternoon the county commissioners, with Senator George T. Weingartner, Representatives Bart Richards and Milton A. Bickett and Secretary of Agriculture Charles G. Jordan had a lengthy conference with the members of the legislative delegation.

A written agreement was signed by Commissioners McCullough, Elder and Boyd and Secretary Stuart asked for a day in which to consider the various angles of it. On Thursday he notified Senator Weingartner that the program had been approved and inasmuch as it had the endorsement of Governor Fisher, it now became but a matter of months until the program will be started.

Surveys will have to be made, grading must be done and contracts must be let, so that it is improbable that all of this work will be done this summer. It is a two-year program under the agreement and will be finished by the spring of 1931.

The program as outlined is the result of the fullest cooperation between the county commissioners, the legislative delegation, the governor and the secretary of highways.

C. C. Coulthard, superintendent of the New Castle division of the P-O railway today said that there should be more cooperation between police and sheriff's office and the street car company in an effort to prevent accidents here. SEE AND HEAR SPOOK MUSIC IN "THE TERROR"

Comes To Capitol Theater Monday Next For Six Day Run

Manager Freeman of the Capitol theatre announces Monday next as the opening date for "The Terror," Warner Bros.' latest and greatest all-talking picture.

"The Terror," a sensational and amusing mystery story lends itself admirably to Vitaphone, and is regarded as the most revolutionary innovation ever presented on the screen.

As an example of the added effectiveness obtainable through Vitaphone, Director Roy Del Ruth cites the weird effect secured through a sudden pipe organ whose uncanny interruptions of scenes is one of the many factors injecting the creepy feeling into the play.

In the silent drama, the weird effect of the organ's playing would be put over only by the registration of the physical reaction of the player's fingers on the keys and by written titles. In the Vitaphone production the weird melodies of the organ break into the tense dialogue of the actors, thus setting them on the quest of the cause of the mysterious music and making everybody in the audience eager to tip toe after.

Other scenes, such as the sound of a falling body in the darkness indicating that violence has been done, the sudden slamming of a door with no one near to slam it, mysterious rappings, shots, shrieks, all become dynamic through Vitaphone.

Miss McAvoy is charming as the hectoring daughter of Dr. Redmayne and Louise Fazenda has never been quite as funny as she is in the part of Mrs. Elvery, spiritualistic invalid, in a continual panic. Horton, is also at his best. The whole cast seems to be playing up to Vitaphone!

"The Terror" is based on a play by Edgar Wallace. Harvey Gates did the screen adaptation. The cast includes May McAvoy, Louise Fazenda, Alec B. Francis, Edward Everett Horton, Margaret Belz, Holmes Herbert, Otto Hoffman, Joseph W. Girard and John Miljan.

All ladies attending the Capitol Monday will receive beautiful carnations. Shulansky's Capitol band will furnish the music between shows. There are going to be other attractions and novelties.

EVENING BRIDGE IS ENJOYABLE AFFAIR

It was said at police headquarters that Mrs. Prosser had reported to the police prosecutor that her husband had been beating her and that a summons had been issued for the man. Prosser was a barber.

The TOWN DOCTOR
(The Doctor of Towns)
Says:

MANY TOWNS ARE LIKE SOME MERCHANTS—They spend much time and money trying to attract new business when they are not getting all there is to get out of the business they already have.

There is in the advertising business, what is called the "Golden Triangle" of every mercantile establishment. It is that space in front of the store where people who pass can see the store entrance and the windows. It is the vital point in every retail business, for no merchant can sell his wares including mail order and telephone orders unless the people come into the store. The advertising to reach the area so named is what is called "Point of Purchase" advertising. Its purpose is to stop the passerby, which is the one big reason for show windows and window displays. Through this medium the merchant attempts to attract attention, then create a desire to enter the store. American people buy by eye—that the eye doesn't see the heart doesn't fancy.

Towns are exactly like stores in this general respect. If a town got all of the business from the traffic it already has, it is ten to one that it would never have to spend any money for additional business. But as long as there are towns, and the people in them remain human, they will probably continue to go out after more customers when they have not got all there is to be had from the traffic they already have.

Let us take automobile traffic as one angle of revenue or business for a town. Every strange automobile that passes through your city is worth a goodly sum—much more than most people think—but you must stop the car and get the passengers out of it, if you are going to get their business. Twenty percent of those people who tour by motor car are in the market for or can be sold a new location. Every motorist can be made to be the cause for more motorists coming to your town. An analysis of this means of town income shows many surprising facts, chief of which is first, that very few towns recognize the business that can be had from it.

One morning a few years ago I left Chicago very early for points east. To save time and avoid traffic I took a back road, but much to my chagrin, I encountered a freight train whose engineer evidently had no place to go and was in no hurry to get there. The half hour that I was delayed I have never regretted, for while waiting there I saw that which to me was, and is, always will be a picture in life of wonderful significance.

Just inside the fence where I sat parked in a calf of less than six months of age, lazily dozing in the morning sunshine. The morning was warm and the flies were more than numerous. Around the calf were many goslings, one of which was some five feet or more away, lazily sunning himself with eyes half open, but occasionally raising sufficiently to pick off a fly that came unsuspiciously close enough. Another little fellow had settled himself directly adjacent to and up against that which soon would be someone's real steak, and was fast asleep. Had the calf moved, one little duck would have been no more. Two other little downy ones with much via and quacking energy were chasing their foot legs off trying to run down overtake and devour elusive insects that were far too clever for them. BUT there was another little duck standing at that portion of the reeling calf's anatomy where swish of tail and toss of head failed to disturb him, picking hundreds of flies off the calf's back—in other words, taking advantage of an opportunity.

To me the calf was a highway, the flies were motorists, and the goslings were towns, each in a true-to-form stage of wakefulness, activity and resourcefulness.

Your town is one of those ducks.

SCHOOL PLAY IS WELL PRESENTED
New Wilmington Seniors Present Play To Large Audience

(Special To The News)
NEW WILMINGTON, April 20.—Another New Wilmington high school student stage production achieved success here when the town folks commiserated favorably on "Her Step-Husband" which was produced on the community house stage yesterday evening by a cast selected from the senior class. A performance for the grade school children was given in the afternoon and was greatly applauded by the juvenile audience.

The play was a comedy farce and the comic scenes were very well portrayed by the amateur actors and actresses. Harrie Hartwell took the feminine lead as Mrs. Marshall and Donald Davis acted opposite her as Harvey P. Marshall. Gerald Newton, active in the role of Dr. Niles, formed a third angle of the comedy's triangle and he played his part very well.

The production was coached by Miss Mae McKelvey and Miss Lucille Beyer, both of whom were complimented by the townspeople upon the success of the comedy. The cast also received praise for the staging of the play. It included Harrie Hartwell, Donald Davis, Gerald Newton, Howard Eagleson, Calvin Ross, Doug Rohrbaugh, Katherine McGee, Jane Wallace and Jane Deane.

Other members of the senior class who helped the production by serving on committees and helping with back stage work were Thomas Hutchinson, Victor Smith, Collins Green, Dick McClure, Mary Herritt, Nelson Greer and Russell.

Robert Jones and Theodore Anderson, two college students who are alumni of the school, gave valuable assistance with the properties and staging of the comedy.

WHY FOLKS LEAVE HOME

Thousands of men and women, especially in the larger cities, change their homes every year. They leave their homes for a variety of reasons. Some are attracted by the promise of a better life in a new place. Others are driven by the need to escape a dull or depressing environment. Still others are seeking better opportunities for their families. The reasons are many and varied, but the result is the same: a change of home.

Men leave home to better family conditions. They often go to find a better life for their families. They may be seeking better opportunities for their families, or they may be seeking a better environment for their children.

Women leave home to better family conditions. They often go to find a better life for their families. They may be seeking better opportunities for their families, or they may be seeking a better environment for their children.

answer. In some ways it doesn't seem to change at all. It just swings around and around. There sun back down only a few thousand years ago, would have been thought unnecessary enveloping. Day before yesterday's skirts were long. Go back a little further and they were short. Well, well.

AN INTERESTING WORLD

Outstanding scientific and business leaders agree that by the year 1950 the world is going to be living in a world of change. There will be no war and no peace. Business will be in a state of flux. All of these things are possible. They are all in the contemplation of the future. It is important, though, that we think about them and pass on our ideas. If any, to others. Things must exist in ideas before they can exist in facts.

Your Broadway AND Mine BY WALTER WINCHELL

NEW YORK, April 20.—A simple trick, so obvious and so foolproof that it is surprising no one ever thought of it before, is being used by New York business concerns to protect their checks, and it seems likely to make expensive check-protecting machinery as obsolete as buggy whips. Half a dozen checking accounts are opened. Against one are drawn checks of less than $100, against the second are drawn checks of $100 to $500, for example, against the third are drawn checks of $500 to $1,000, and so on. Since the account number appears on the check, which two or three banks are beginning to supply in distinctive, standardized colors, each check is as proof against tampering as a piece of paper money.

AS IF WE DIDN'T KNOW

Viola Shore epigrams that you are the master of the woman you don't desire, and the slave of the one you do.

IMAGINE
They tell it on Dorothy Parker, who fuled in Hollywood. This episode is one of the reasons. The clever woman, those articles and verse illumine the better masses, offered one of her unpublished yarns to the moon pitcher people as soon as she arrived in California. When she attended the first showing in a proposition room she discovered that not a trace remained of her effort. Title, plot and characters were swirled beyond the identification stage.

"Considering that you have not employed my story or the title," she said to the magazine of the firm, "will you permit me to sell the story to a magazine?"

"Yes," was the reply, "but on conditions that you let us have the movie rights."

HEHEHEH
Because the Flea Circus on 42nd street exacts an admission tariff and then much to your surprise an extra fee when you start to go in to see the fleas perform, a complainant suggests that the management call it The Fleecy Circus.

IN OTHER WORDS
Police Commissioner Wheeler apparently believes that what Texas Guinan really deserves is a great big foot.

FLIP CRACK
Alexander Woolcott revises it: "Marry in haste and repent in the tabloids."

TITTER
First Chorus Girl: "Your figure look swell, Myrtle; how much do you weigh?"
Second C. G.: "One hundred 'n' fifteen dressed. One hundred 'n' ten Ziegfeld."

A FORM OF CRITICISM
The layman probably doesn't know that when a member of a newspaper staff prepares a piece of copy, or a story, he marks the top of the page with his name or his mark. The writer's copy, for example, is marked "Winch." Odd McIntyre's is marked "Oom," and so on.

But what we started out to record was the drama critic for the Herald Tribune, who is Perry Hammond, slugs his reviews "Ham!"

Correct this sentence: "We had guests over the week-end," said she, "but the bathroom always was empty when I wanted it."

Huge 101 Ranch Wild West Show Coming May 7

Advance Advertising Car For Big Show Is In City Today

Circus paste brushes are slapping against billboards, dead walls and fences today, but they're beating a new tune—the rousing song of cowboys and Indians. Cossacks and frontiersmen, for Miller Brothers' 101 Ranch Wild West Show comes to New Castle Tuesday, May 7, for two performances, afternoon and night, at the old circus grounds on Mahoning avenue and Cedar street and the big show's No. 1 advertising car, Max Fletcher in command, with 30 bill posters, lithographers and bannermen on board, is here today to bill the greatest of all wild west shows, past or present.

Miller Brothers, who own the famous 101 Ranch, have added to its features and novelties hardly dreamed of in the old days. Yes, there are elephants, camels, buffalo, oxen, longhorns with 101 and the long, orange-colored stocks cars of the trains bring 600 horses, bronchos, Arabian stallions, blooded jumpers and flat racers, ring steers, mustangs, outlaws, Chinooks and Cossack cavalry outfits. Famous Indian chiefs and warriors will be found among the 200 Redskins with the huge western troupe, and the cowboys and cowgirls are of championship rating in rough riding, broncho busting, roping and bulldozing. There are 1,100 people with 101 Ranch, and the spread of canvas, including the huge rectangular big top, with its opera chair grandstand and auxiliary tiers, seating 14,000 people, cover nine acres.

PUSH PROJECTED WATERWAYS MOVE

Peebles And Stone Take Active Part In Development Project

It will be of local interest to know that the move of the Hon. J. Howard Swick, congressman from the 26th district, who on Thursday introduced a bill in congress instructing the secretary of war to conduct a survey of the Beaver, Shenango and Mahoning rivers to determine the feasibility and probable cost of constructing a canal deep enough to permit the boats from the Ohio river coming into the Beaver river and giving this city water transportation, had its inception in the activities of two of the younger citizens of this city, F. G. Peebles and H. P. Stone.

For many weeks prior to the announcement made in The News last night of the move to provide possible water transportation to this city, these young men took up the serious consideration of the matter and started to investigate.

It was and is the intention of Messrs. Peebles and Stone to interest not only the people of this district but also of the Beaver valley and Youngstown, O. Their plan is to organize here what will be known as the Beaver River Waterways association, the object of which will be to further the interests of the proposed canal in the Beaver, Shenango and Mahoning rivers as far as this city and Youngstown.

Messrs. Peebles and Stone left this morning for Youngstown where they plan to meet with the secretary of the Chamber of Commerce of that city and also such manufacturers of that city as they can see today, and secure their cooperation in the movement.

A meeting to form the proposed association will be held in this city in the near future.

"Triple Action" Gets the Dirt

"Triple action" rapid sweeping—thorough beating—powerful suction! loosens and gets the embedded dirt, sweeps up the lint, threads and hair, heretofore cleaning long or short nap rugs.

Was $62.50 — NOW $39.50

—and this is the identical motor-driven beater brush cleaner that previously sold at $62.50. The exceptional price reduction is made by eliminating the tremendous expense of factory-trained agent salaries and agents.

The cleaner is so easy to operate or light in weight—following motor requiring no oiling—designed to suit corners and under furniture—it runs quietly—it glides without effort.

38% More Dirt

In tests made by Modern Products Testing Plant, Hamilton Beach cleaner removed 38% more dirt than the average vacuum by 14 other cleaners previously tested. Good Housekeeping Institute says about this cleaner, "particularly effective in picking up threads and lint."

There is no better cleaner made—regardless of price. We respectfully invite comparison.

PEGGY HOPKINS AFFLICTED WITH RIVIERA BLUES

NICE, April 20.—Peggy Hopkins Joyce admits she has the Riviera Blues.

That means the ex-hispanic beauty who takes maturing as she looks in the azure Mediterranean and soft atmosphere of these shores in well that she has decided to establish a permanent home in Southern France.

With wide open eyes and a serious air Peggy confided to International News Service that "home" is a nice villa at Cap d'Antibes near Cannes called "The Blue House."

Has Long Lease.

"Please believe me when I say that the name of the villa was on a piece of paper I took possession of," she pleaded. "I have signed a lease for a year period and the day I intend to leave Southern France is in the far future."

"It is peaceful and beautiful on the Riviera just the climate that I need. Besides, Cap d'Antibes is only ten minutes from Monte Carlo, so you see I am not entirely cut off from the world."

Not Yet Engaged.

On several occasions Peggy has said "I do" and the rumor had it she was contemplating saying it again. The rumors connected her with the names of two different stockbrokers of New York. Peggy never has been married to a stockbroker.

"That just goes to show you that the gossip will try to push me toward wedlock even if I go to the North Pole," she exclaimed.

"All you can say is that I have not been engaged since I was engaged to Lord Northwick and that I am on the Riviera to stay for a long while."

WILD GOOSE EXPECTS THE WORST

Peter tried to encourage the poor Wild Goose.

"It certainly is too bad that you had such a dreadful accident, although, if you hadn't told me, I never should have believed that a warm wing could hurt anybody," said the boy.

"I always supposed that it was the wintry breezes that the birds did not like—that it was those they flew south to get away from."

"But cheer up, old chap, the worst is over. When the day is rosy, you will feel much better. I dare say in another hour or so you will feel rested enough to take to your wings again. Suppose you are a few miles behind the rest of the flock. You will catch up to them in time, and that is really what matters, after all."

The Wild Goose looked at Peter and sighed.

"As I said once before, you mean well," said he. "But there isn't a speck of use in telling me not to worry. I can't help it with all I have on my mind. Wouldn't you feel downhearted if every minute you expected a crowd of two-legs to steal upon you while you were helpless and shoot you with their bangstuck?"

"I expect it because it always happens when Wild Geese are brought to earth. I don't know why it never fails. Unless, perhaps, it is only when we are weak and helpless that the two-legs have a chance to take a shot at us."

"Ooh! It's terrible to think of. I tell you. Only a few of us manage to escape. Most of us are too tired to fly out of reach, and although we are innocent of any wrong we are

School Musicians Plan To Compete

Will Go To Erie To Take Part In Elimination
Contests

TO PLAY HERE ON TUESDAY EVENING

In the past eight years the New Castle Senior High School has established a reputation over Pennsylvania for band and orchestra work. In that time the school has won many competitions, finished fourth in a national competition, and missed a state championship by a small fraction of one per cent.

The time for the annual elimination for bands, orchestras and choruses is here again, this year the elimination being held in Erie, Pa., on April 26. Senior High School will send 180 students to the elimination, the group representing an orchestra, a band, a boys chorus, a girls chorus and mixed chorus. This elimination is for the championship of Northwestern Pennsylvania, the winner going to Harrisburg for the state championship.

Takes Money To Do It

Train fare for 180 high school students means money, for although the Pennsylvania Railroad has given the school a low rate for the special train, it still means considerable money.

Bringing this article along by progressive stages, it is found that the school needs about $200.00 yet to finance the trip, and in order to get that $200.00 a concert will be held Tuesday evening, April 23 in the auditorium of the Senior High School. The program of numbers that will be used in the competition to Erie, will be played on Tuesday evening.

This concert was decided upon Friday, and while it is short notice for such an event, it is hoped that the crowd turning out will be sufficiently large to raise the required $200.00.

Blocks of tickets are being distributed, and the parents and friends of the students in Senior High School are urged to get them either from the high school or from members of the orchestra, band or choruses.

Credit Exchange

Thwarts Scheme
Of Check Crook

Local Exchange Cause Of Apprehension Of Check Trickster In State

To the New Castle Credit Exchange all honor for the apprehending of a check crook in a city in the southeastern part of the state.

Some days ago a man posing under the name of "C. J. Bender," entered several local exchanges and made a down payment on goods by check. As it was Saturday afternoon no checkup could be made.

Suspicion was not aroused as the man did not ask for the goods until full payment was made. However he returned shortly and asked to get a check cashed for some $20 due to the fact that the banks were closed.

This same trick was repeated in some four business houses in the one afternoon. On the following Monday the worthlessness of the checks was discovered.

Ray Hall of the local credit exchange immediately warned all of the other bureaus with the details of the trick and also with a description of the man. Today Mr. Hall received a letter of thanks from a bureau in the southeastern part of the state thanking him for the information. A man believed to be the one who was here had attempted the same scheme there and had been apprehended immediately.

Assembly Makes Appropriation For Pymatuning Dam

Industries and citizens in the Shenandoah valley will be interested to know that the Pymatuning Dam project received some attention in the session of the General Assembly which closed on April 18.

An appropriation of $498,000.00 is made of which $300,000.00 will be used to buy up all the land yet necessary to the development of the dam and the $198,000.00 is for the re-routing of roads and railroads made necessary by the dam.

With the land all bought and the roads being re-routed some actual work upon the construction of the dam and spillway can be looked for in the next few years.

Guggenheim Bride

Mrs. Thomas M. Gorman, formerly Miss Natalie Price Guggenheim, 18-year-old heiress of multi-millionaire family and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edmond A. Guggenheim, of Roslyn, L. I. Miss Guggenheim's marriage to Gorman, 27-year-old Port Washington, L. I. real estate broker and son of a railroad freight agent, was strongly objected to by her family. Bride could not be found after marriage was announced, but Gorman said he was building a "love nest" for her.

When a new trial was refused to E. J. Hunt at sentence court held by Judges Hildebrand and Chambers this morning, he was called for sentence but failed to appear. Prothonotary R. M. Campbell called this name and that of his bondman, and when both failed to respond, Hunt's bail in the sum of $1500 was declared forfeited. Nicholas Green was on the bond.

Hunt was charged with selling liquor. Robert Kins, charged with fraudulent conversion and false pretense, was sentenced to pay a fine of $10 and costs and to undergo imprisonment in the county jail for 30 days.

Allred R. Hall, charged with felonious assault and battery, was fined $50 and costs and sentenced from two to four months in the county jail.

When John Haller, charged with operating a motor vehicle without a license, came up for sentence, District Attorney J. Elder Bryan stated to the court that there was another charge of stealing an automobile against Haller in Allegheny county. According to District Attorney Bryan, Haller and another man stole a car in Pittsburgh and stopped at a gas station near Rose Point for oil and gas. After they had secured the gas and part of the oil, the owner of the place went into his station to get some more oil, and when he emerged he found Haller had driven away. He gave chase, following the car into New Castle and out the Youngstown road. A telephone message was sent to Constable McClenahan, at New Bedford, State police were also called and Haller was caught near New Bedford by McClenahan. Haller is 24 years of age and a bright looking young man. When asked if he had ever been in trouble before he admitted to the court that he had been arrested in McKeesport for drunkenness. He was sentenced to 30 days in the county jail. He will likely be turned over to the Allegheny county authorities on his release.

"Babe" Picato, charged with surety of the peace by his wife, was assessed the costs in the case following an agreement relative to the case.

A social and bake sale is planned for the next meeting of the Oak street association. It is expected to occur on May 24.

$1500 Bail Bond Is Forfeited In E. J. Hunt Case

Fails To Show Up At Court
For Sentence After New Trial Is Refused

SENTENCES PASSED
AT COURT TODAY

When a new trial was refused to E. J. Hunt at sentence court held by Judges Hildebrand and Chambers this morning, he was called for sentence but failed to appear. Prothonotary R. M. Campbell called this name and that of his bondman, and when both failed to respond, Hunt's bail in the sum of $1500 was declared forfeited. Nicholas Green was on the bond.

Hunt was charged with selling liquor. Robert Kins, charged with fraudulent conversion and false pretense, was sentenced to pay a fine of $10 and costs and to undergo imprisonment in the county jail for 30 days.

Allred R. Hall, charged with felonious assault and battery, was fined $50 and costs and sentenced from two to four months in the county jail.

When John Haller, charged with operating a motor vehicle without a license, came up for sentence, District Attorney J. Elder Bryan stated to the court that there was another charge of stealing an automobile against Haller in Allegheny county. According to District Attorney Bryan, Haller and another man stole a car in Pittsburgh and stopped at a gas station near Rose Point for oil and gas. After they had secured the gas and part of the oil, the owner of the place went into his station to get some more oil, and when he emerged he found Haller had driven away. He gave chase, following the car into New Castle and out the Youngstown road. A telephone message was sent to Constable McClenahan, at New Bedford, State police were also called and Haller was caught near New Bedford by McClenahan. Haller is 24 years of age and a bright looking young man. When asked if he had ever been in trouble before he admitted to the court that he had been arrested in McKeesport for drunkenness. He was sentenced to 30 days in the county jail. He will likely be turned over to the Allegheny county authorities on his release.

"Babe" Picato, charged with surety of the peace by his wife, was assessed the costs in the case following an agreement relative to the case.

Motorists May Get State Tourist Maps By Sending Stamps

State Drivers May Get Revised Tourists Map By Sending Postage

HARRISBURG, Pa., April 20.—Arrival of a small quantity of tourist maps, the 1929 revised edition, swamped the Department of Highways with thousands of requests that could not be filled before April when the bulk of the new maps will be received from the printer, Charles Peterson, director of publicity and information. Early requests for the map were not accompanied by postage. Two cents is required.

The new map is printed in three colors with county boundaries in red, cities and towns in blue, and township boundaries in green. The map shows the highways of adjoining states in red with route numbers shown in the same color. County boundary lines, the names of counties, all lakes and streams are printed in green.

The scale of the map is one inch for each ten miles. The distance between points is shown on main roads. The legend of the map includes distinctive markers for cities, towns and villages which indicate the population of each.

Types of route markers and the list of free river bridges are other features of the legend. The bridge location is marked with a symbol corresponding with the list which tells the name of the bridge. The reverse side of the map printed solidly in black is devoted to detailed maps of Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Gettysburg, Harrisburg, Scranton, Erie, Altoona, Williamsport, Johnstown, Lancaster, Allentown, Bethlehem and the metropolitan areas of Philadelphia and Pittsburgh. A mile and a half of main trails, traffic signs, and son Bob were Sharpville visitors Sunday.

Patrolmen Aid In Recovery Of Many Stolen Automobiles

Restore Cars To Owners In 32 Cities Of State; Return Six Foreign Cars

HARRISBURG, April 20.—While running up a total of 420,000 miles of highway patrolled in February, state highway patrolmen aided in recovery of 58 stolen automobiles, Benjamin G. Eymon, Registrar of Motor Vehicles of the Pennsylvania Department of Highways reports. State police, private detective organizations and record clerks of the Bureau of Motor Vehicles played important parts in restoring the vehicles, valued at $30,715, to owners in 32 cities and towns of Pennsylvania and in eight states.

The biggest haul made by the thieves was valued at $2,500 while the poorest was a coupe valued at $50. Combined with the January report, February recoveries make a total of 140 cars recovered with a total value of $75,095, while the report of February, 1928, shows more cars by six and $8,000 more value than in 1928.

Police of other states returned six cars to Pennsylvania owners while Pennsylvania officials restored eleven cars to out-of-state owners.

Seven owners in Pittsburgh had cars restored to them as did three each in Harrisburg and Greensburg and two each in Wilkes-Barre, Erie and Pottsville. Other cities and towns represented in the month's list are: Arnold, North Braddock, Macungie, West Brownsville, Lancaster, Kennett Square, Clayville, Aetna, Northmont, Clarksburg, Connelville, Duryea, Allentown, Pittston, Yatesville, Clairton, Johnstown, Philadelphia, Mollenhauer, Bangor, Scranton, Aliquippa, Cresson, McAdoo and Nickelville.

McCulloch Advises Soybean Planting By Local Farmers

Soybean, High In Protein, And Good Leguminous Substitute, Says County Agent

Dairymen with poor prospects for a good supply of leguminous hay still have a chance to provide their cows with nutritious roughage, states county agent Harold R. McCulloch. This is the statement by the county agent for those who have had their clover fields damaged by winter-killing or for those who have no seedling at all. Many farmers, too, have soil of such a high lime requirement that it must be partially satisfied before red clover will grow.

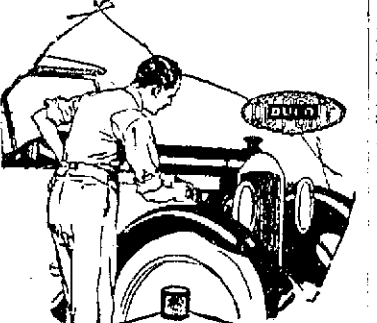

Soybeans will grow under such conditions because they are more tolerant of acid soils. They are high in protein content, being about the same as alfalfa in feeding value. Another valuable feature in the soybean is that it can be grown in any part of the state providing the soil is of average fertility.

Wilson is the variety recommended for the hay crop by McCulloch. The rate of seeding is two bushels to the acre and the oat compartment of the drill may be used in planting. All seeds should be inoculated so that they can utilize the nitrogen of the air. Planting time is when the soil is warm.

Washington's Mill Falling Into Decay

CONNELLSVILLE, Pa., April 20.—The historic old mill, erected at Perryopolis by George Washington and rapidly going into decay, will not be preserved by state action this year, residents of that town who sponsored the movement believe. With approximately $10,000 necessary to reconstruction it, in addition to the purchase price, residents of the town do not feel able to finance the proposition and it is evident the Legislature, with adjournment scheduled for Thursday, intends to take no action. Already the structure, once operated by the "Father of the Country," is almost beyond any repair and, with another year before any action is taken, it is felt it will only be a mass of debris.

Hit, Run Drivers Kill 13 Persons

Hit And Run Motorists Kill 13 And Injured 54 In Month

HARRISBURG, Pa., April 20.—Hit-and-run drivers are charged with killing 13 persons and injuring 54 during the month ending April 15, the Pennsylvania department of highways announces. The total for the preceding month was six deaths and 51 injuries. The offense is punishable by a fine and imprisonment, coupled with revocation of license for one year but police are having increasing difficulty in apprehending the criminals. In many cases an unconscious pedestrian is the only clue but the toll includes a large number of crimes committed in cities and towns before many witnesses, none of whom took note of the license number or other information. Cooperation with police is the only way to cut down this horrible toll of hit-and-run deaths and injuries.

Examine 19,000 For Operators Licenses

Have 19,148 Applicants For Driver's Licenses; 4,415 Fail

HARRISBURG, Pa., April 20.—The examining units of the State Highway Patrol during the month of March, examined a total of 19,148 applicants for operators' licenses, of which number 14,732 passed and 4,415 failed. The patrol examiners, in the course of examinations, decided that the lighting equipment be correct on 3,345 cars in which applicants presented themselves for examination, and the position of the registration plates changed on 2,123 cars. This makes the total examinations for the first three months of the year 17,750, with a record of 29,400 people having passed and 8,350 failed, and the correction of lighting equipment on 6,978 cars and the adjustment of registration plates on 4,182 cars.

Rev. Hugh Kerr Here On Sunday

Noted Pittsburgh Pastor To Speak At Service In Cathedral

SERVICE TO START
AT 8:15 O'CLOCK

People of this community will be given the opportunity on Sunday evening of hearing the Rev. Hugh Thompson Kerr, pastor of the Shady-side Presbyterian church of Pittsburgh.

This wonderful speaker and pastor, who has been delighting the audiences of this country and even other countries through KDKA, with his sermons and the services conducted in his church, will be at the Cathedral on Lincoln avenue Sunday evening at 8:15 o'clock and deliver one of those addresses which have been making him famous.

One of the remarkable feats of KDKA with the cooperation of Rev. Kerr was the broadcasting of an Easter service to Commander Richard E. Byrd and his crew in Little America, 11,000 miles away, in the midst of the Antarctic. This service was especially prepared by the Rev. Kerr, his organist and church quartet for transmission to that faraway place.

When Rev. Kerr speaks here Sunday evening, the meeting will be open to the general public, no fees being charged for admission, and preparations have been made to care for an audience which will fill the spacious auditorium of the Cathedral.

In order to get here in time for the service to be held here and also have time to give his usual Sunday evening service in his own church, he will be escorted from Pittsburgh to this city by a highway patrolman, which it is anticipated will expedite the journey.

Musical Program.
The musical selections to be rendered during the program have been listed and are as follows:
Organ prelude, "Overture Triumphant"—Ferrari; "Dreams"—Strauss.

Contralto solo, "The Ninety and Nine"—(Campbell)—Mrs. W. P. Felch. Quartet, "I Feel Thy Hallowed Presence"—(Carter)—Soprano, Miss Mary Clark; alto, Mrs. James Rugh; tenor, Arthur Thomas; bass, J. Russell Urmson.

Mrs. Paul Browne Patterson will accompany the quartet at the organ. Offertory, "Reverie"—Debussy.

Address by Rev. Kerr.
Soprano solo, "He Shall Give His Angels Charge"—(Scott)—Mrs. B. K. Thacker.

Postlude, "Entrée du Cortège"—Dubois.
The organ prelude, offertory and postlude will be played by Albert A. Taylor of New Wilmington, organist at the First M. E. church of this city.

The information against Jaffe was made by John Corsi of New Castle, treasurer of the company. Jaffe is said to have escaped six months ago after his arrest in Pittsburgh. It was learned a few days ago that he was in Cleveland.

Rev. Sommerfeld At Pittsburgh Meeting

Rev. W. R. Sommerfeld, pastor of Christ Lutheran church of Washington and Seckford streets, has returned from Pittsburgh where he attended a three session of a pastoral conference of the Evangelical Lutheran church, Eastern district of the Missouri Synod.

BAPTIST-DANCELAND

The Baptist team and Danceband team will on Monday April 22 play a practice game at the Lehigh grounds. The Danceband team will meet Sunday at 2 p. m. at 705 1/2 Chestnut street, PENNSY.

Announcement is made that the loss and damage committee of the Erie and Ashtabula division of the Pennsylvania railroad has engaged the services of Jack Bryan local cartoonist to assist it in connection with division work.

Some News, Some Views, But Mostly Just Observations
Of Interesting Things
Around New Castle

If you happen to read this column and there are those who do, you may be interested to know that it now returns to its more regular appearance daily in fact, except Sunday. After three and a half months spent commuting between New Castle and Harrisburg the engineer is now ready to dash off a yard or so of stuff every day for this column and whether or not it is interesting depends upon what has happened.

Busted right out or in or back, in to an evening party last night when the Consistory dinner was held in the Cathedral. Girls you should have seen Dr. Zerner, the Master of Ceremonies. Tricky no end. A violent green coat, oh "weezy woe!" with kippy white pants and a mustache that must have taken hours to get properly.

The doctor breathed of Spring and caroling, birds and buds just straining at the leash to be up and at 'em. One expected a startled faun to leap out from the wings any minute, or to see a flock of wood nymphs come trooping out around the doctor. He was a picture if you get what I mean.

His troupe was a pot pourri of tap and tango or a symphony of hoof and yodel, a dash of this and a tincture of that and all of it going to make up a real program.

This column is usually asking for something. This time it's the High school band, orchestra and choruses. The youngsters are competing in Erie next week and in order to get enough money for the special train, are holding a special concert on Tuesday evening. Let's fill the auditorium and put the thing over.

One industry seems to be in for an active summer and that is industry politics. The candidates are coming out with the spring weather and as the days go by you can expect to meet them on the city streets and the country lanes. The trouble is there are so many good fellows running that one is puzzled as to what to do.

Doc Parlette has a wee begone expression on his face today; that denotes inward gloom. Doc has everything arranged for a golf match this afternoon, even the words, and then along comes a rain that, has the fairways reeking with moisture.

Aid Farmers With Early Vegetables

Mercer County Farm Bureau Advises Truck Growers Of
New Varieties

MERCER, Pa., April 20.—New varieties of vegetables and quick growing varieties of the old garden standbys are being planted this spring by county farmers who supply the curb markets of Farrell and Sharon with garden produce during the months of July, August and September that this market is open to the buying public.

The work is being carried on, under the direction of the Farm Bureau who have made this market supply one of their major operation for 1929. New varieties of all kinds of popular vegetables that are quick growing are being given a trial this year.

The big achievement of the year will be the growing of roasting ears by July. The most careful kind of attention is being given to seed selection and other items of detail in planting that the results of the year may determine for the county agricultural the best growing varieties.

IMMUNIZE CHILDREN

The remaining children of the parochial schools in Farrell and Sharon were given the serum treatment prescribed for diphtheria immunization by Dr. S. J. Dickey, county medical director who has just completed his program of immunizing and testing those already so treated in these two towns.

TO ENFORCE LAW

Mercer County merchants who wish to evade paying a fine for sale of cigarettes to minors will do well to question the age of his girl customers as well as boys.

A Greenville merchant, neglecting to determine the age of his two girl customers was arrested and fined.

The Greenville girls were of high school age.

To break up this practice of selling to minors is the intention of county authorities who report the matter in its worst complicated state since the smoking fad among women has been established.

Merchants handling cigarettes are asked to assist authorities in making sure that each sale is to parties within the age limit of 21 years as prescribed by law.

Smokeless City Sought as Great Boon to Public Health

Unnecessary Smoke Is New York's Great Health Menace

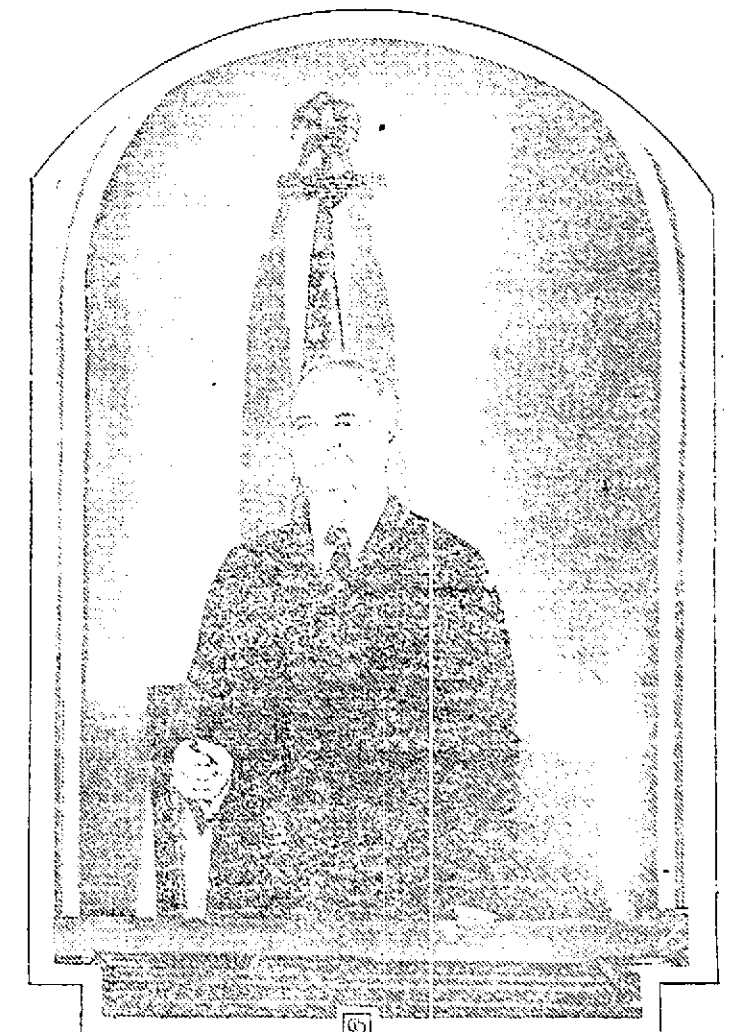

WHAT a beautiful clear day it is! That's a New Yorker speaking, and, in all probability, there's only about 2,000 tons of dust particles drifting around in the air. Just a few hundred tons more makes it a cloudy Pittsburgh-like day.

Prof. Horton H. Sheldon of the Physics Department of New York University is helping the health department clear the great city of its smoke nuisance. Not cigarette smoke, either, but honest to goodness soot-and-dust, he chases around the town with his little "cinder catcher," stopping every once in a while in some smoke-polluted district to grab cinder catchers which have strayed too far from their home chimneys.

Just think, there's over one trillion cubic feet of air in the atmosphere around New York, to say nothing of the immeasurable quantity of "hot air." On a nice clear day the cinder catching professor has found that if he could get all the cinders in one spot they would weigh 2,000 tons. And that's a lot of cinders.

All joking aside, New York's air is getting too full of soot and smoke to suit the health authorities and something is being done about it. Tests made in residential sections of the city show the minimum is stated above. Just imagine what it must be in the heart of the manufacturing sections, where there are so many chimneys per block.

New Castle High Gridders Told Every Afternoon At Franklin Field

Material Is Green, But Bridenbaugh Hopes To Have Winning Combination

By "BUGS"

New Castle High School football team will be expected next fall to be a real contender. The graduation of Arthur Schmitt, veteran quarterback, and the addition of Ralph McAuley, a star in the line, are factors in the team's hopes. McAuley, who has been the best line player in the state, was the season's outstanding player.

McAuley was a member of the 1928 team, which won the state championship. He was named to the team as a reserve, but when the season opened, he was promoted to the starting line. He has been a very valuable player.

Bridenbaugh, the spring football coach, expects to have a winning combination next fall. He has a lot of material, but he needs a few more players to make a complete team. He is looking for a quarterback and a few more line players.

Andy Martin Wins From Eddie Shea

By ED FRITZ

Andy Martin of Boston turned in another sensational victory last night when he defeated the good Eddie Shea of Chicago in a 10 round bout at the Boston Garden. Martin had a good edge in eight of the 10 rounds and will arrive here early next week for his 10 round fight with Steve Smith of Indianapolis, Conn., Wednesday night who is also matched to fight Kid Chocolate at Wilkes-Barre, May 7.

Martin To Battle Smith, Wednesday

By ED FRITZ

The Boston boy defeat of Shea is one more illustration of his class in the featherweight ranks and critics who have seen him go, declare it will not be long until he is wearing the featherweight championship, providing, of course, that he gets a chance to battle for the crown.

Shea is one of the best featherweights in the country and when they were booked for the garden it looked as though the Chicago lad would pose out the Bostoner but things went differently. As soon as the victory was turned in Manager Billy Henderson telephoned the writer and said: "We won by a mile and arrive Monday."

College Co-eds Will Play Volley Ball

(Special To The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, April 20.—Volley ball will occupy the spotlight with Westminster College co-eds this spring if a plan under consideration goes through.

An 18-game series, with three-game weeks, will be played each evening in the twilight on the outdoor court of Hillside dormitory. The regular schedule of volleyball games played in the gymnasium by class teams aroused considerable enthusiasm for the game.

It is true that the dollar bill of now doesn't go as far as it did then, but that fact still doesn't make up for the difference being paid now to exceptional baseball talent.

And whenever the subject comes up it's natural to bring in the name of John Henry "Honus" Wagner, possibly the greatest star of the game who ever lived—and that goes for the moderns as well as the ancients. What a player Honus was! Imagine him, a man of 30, a star of the game, and he was still a boy in the league clubs.

Wagner was unlucky in that he reached his prime before the days when they were paying plenty for baseball ability. Honus' salary was $40,000 every year and, in comparison, it seems that Honus would be worth the price $10,000.

Plenty of room in the NEW SUPERIOR Whippet

An Important advantage of the new Superior Whippet Four and Six is "Finger-Tip Control"—one button in center of steering wheel which operates starter, lights and horn.

THE larger bodies of the new Superior Whippet Four and Six afford more spacious interiors, with extra head room, leg room and elbow room.

The beautiful and ultra-modern design of the new Superior Whippet makes it the style authority in both the Four and light Six classes. Many tasteful refinements include longer lines, higher radiator and hood, chromium-plated and sweeping one-piece full-crown fenders. The faster speed and pick-up of the new Superior Whippet result from a higher compression engine, giving more than 20% added horsepower. Low consumption of gasoline and oil, and dependable performance, insure exceptional operating economy and minimum service costs.

Three Killed As Scaffold Falls

Three New York Workmen Killed, Six Injured As Girder Causes Scaffold To Drop

ACCIDENT OCCURS
AT NEW BUILDING

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, April 20.—Three were killed and six injured today when a scaffold collapsed on a building being constructed by the Western Union at West Broadway and Worth streets. It is believed all the killed and injured were workmen. The dead and injured were working on a score who were working on a seventh floor scaffold. A giant girder being hoisted into place ten stories up tore loose and dropped carrying the scaffold and the workmen to street in a mass of tangled wreckage.

First sensational reports said more than a dozen had been killed. As a result ambulances from all nearby hospitals rushed to the scene. Police Commissioner Whelan also went direct to the accident and took personal charge.

Search Debris
It was more than an hour after the accident before all the workmen could be accounted for. Several, according to uninjured workers, were thought to have been buried in the debris. Firemen were digging frantically in the wreckage in search of possible additional injured or dead.

Police say it is possible pedestrians may have been victims, for the mass of iron work and huge wooden beams shattered the thin roof over the sidewalk, burying every one within a dozen feet in the wreckage.

The street was in a shambles of horror. Arms and legs could be seen protruding from the mass of wreckage and the screams of victims yet alive added to the awfulness of the scene.
